

Fidel Castro's most recent violently anti-US and anti-OAS speech on August 23-24 pretty well forecasts Cuba's position at the forthcoming United Nations General Assembly.

1. He said, "Cuba no longer is and will never more be an appendix of the US economy and will no longer vote in the United Nations at the bidding of their index finger. We shall be the friends of the Soviets and of the Chinese People's Republic because they have proven to be our friends, while the imperialists attack us and want to destroy us."
